

FAMILY FUN!

IN MARTINSBURG, WV

FOR THE KIDS, BY GEORGE CHILDREN'S MUSEUM – A hands-on experience designed to put children in touch with their heritage. Travel through the immersion galleries, take a bike ride along the Washington Heritage Trail, learn more about young George Washington and the rich railroad history of our area. Get hands-on with railroad careers and check out the LEGOS® exhibit!

Located at Caperton Train Station
229 E Martin St • (304) 264-9977
www.forthekidsbygeorge.org

WONDERMENT PUPPET
THEATER – Enchanting, year-round fun for kids and parents alike! Wonderment

Puppet Theater produces six original puppet shows each year and features an exhibit hall, puppetry store and birthday party room. Just visiting during the week? We can do a special show just for your group. Call for more information. Located on West King Street, 1.5 miles from Inter-state 81, Exit 13. Open Saturday and Sunday for public performances at 1pm. Doors open 20 minutes before showtime.

 Wonderment Puppet Theater
The Magical Little Theater with a Big Heart

Located at 412 W King St
(304) 260-9382
www.wondermentpuppets.com

THE BE-HIVE – What is BE-Hive?

A free fun place for parents and their children to join with other families with young children. Here you will enjoy games, musical performances, presentations, theater skits, storytelling, movies, science shows, and many other activities focused on one or more great life principles. Parents and their children will find inspiration for using great life principles in their home every day.

Located at 205 N Queen St
(301) 704-0324 • Be-hive.org

L. NORMAN DILLON FARM MUSEUM –

Located just off Route 9 between Martinsburg and Hedgesville, the Dillon Farm Museum features antique horse-drawn farm machinery and educational exhibits.

It is open on Sundays, 1-5pm and hosts heritage celebrations in June and October.

(304) 582.5707 • DillonFarmMuseum.org

